Decisions will be announced in December/January.*

The "International Regions: Asia" course will explore the current real estate market in China. The course will touch on topics such as cross-border investing, culture, history, and local best practices. Students will also learn about the investment and development landscape in the region across all asset classes. The course will end with a mandatory study trip in China where students will have the opportunity to participate in office and project site visits and speak with the local practitioners first-hand.
